

Year 8 Drama Unit Overview 1 – Application of techniques

Completion date during fortnight of 6th December 2021

You will learn about:

- What Human Rights are and gain a clear understanding of them
- Look at people of high importance and relevance during this time
- How to complete independent research in small groups and turn it into practical work
- Freeze Frames and narration and how to use them effectively

You will be able to:

- Understanding how to apply techniques to a performance to enhance the outcome
- Research real life stories/human rights to use as a stimulus develop into a piece of drama
- Performing a detailed character that supports the rest of the group and the performance
- Effectively use drama techniques to enhance a performance

		Self Assessment
		Start	End
Unit Overview To understand what Human Rights are To know what freeze frames are and how to use them effectively. To understand what narration is as a technique and how it can be used. To know how to use independent research as a stimulus for a piece of drama. To confidently discuss a range of drama techniques and how you would successfully apply them to a performance. To create 2 performance projects with a link to Human Rights and incorporating drama techniques successfully. To independently choose appropriate drama techniques for performance.
		Key Words CHARACTERISATION- is the concept of creating characters for a narrative. Characters may be presented by means of description, through their actions, speech, thoughts and interactions with other characters. DEVELOPMENT- is to create a piece of drama from a stimulus and improve a performance using feedback. COLLABORATION- is a form of theatre where the script originates not from a writer or writers, but from joint collaboration, usually improvisatory, work by a group of people INDEPENDENT- is the ability to work on your own and self-assess your ability and performance skills. STIMULUS- A starting point for a piece of work. IMPROVISATION- is a form of live theatre in which the plot, characters and dialogue of a scene or story are made up in the moment. TECHNIQUES - Dramatic techniques are used by a playwright to enhance the emotional, aural, and visual experience for the audience.
Assessment You will be assessed on two different projects within this unit of work. Project 1- Creative Response Use of Techniques Project 2- Creative Risk Taking Storytelling		Extra-Curricular opportunities Drama Club is: You have the opportunity to be part of the school play in November. Mr Quigley’s revenge will be performed to a Primary School audience and an evening audience.
		Creative Skill CREATIVE THINKERS AND REFLECTION

--	--	--