

Sarah Childs

Sarah Childs is Lead Practitioner and member of the Senior Leadership Team at Penryn College, Cornwall. She leads the Penryn Partnership Creativity Collaboratives project, in conjunction with eight local primary schools.

Sarah graduated from City University London and later completed a PGCE at Bath Spa University. She joined Penryn College in 2003 as Head of Music, moving to Head of Creative Arts from 2005.

As a Specialist Leader in education, Sarah works across Cornwall developing primary and secondary music curriculums, alongside working with colleagues across the county delivering CPD.