

Sarah Waller

Sarah Waller has worked as a Creative Producer and education professional for decades, both in Cornwall and across the UK, making extraordinary things happen in amazing places.

She has created and delivered large-scale outdoor performances, embedding young people, communities and local artists at the heart of its talent development opportunities.

During this time, Sarah has been Co-Director of Dance Republic 2, Programme Consultant for Arts Council England Bridge, in the south west, and Creative Partnerships. She has been a Consultant to Qualifications and Curriculum Authority on creativity as part of the curriculum, Advisory Teacher for Dance, and Advanced Skills Teacher for Creativity and Dance.

Among many others, Sarah has worked with Ballet Lorent, Motionhouse, Rosemary Lee, Wayne McGregor, Yeast Directions, TC Howard, Candoco, Simon Birch, Cscape Dance, and Vincent Dance Theatre. She has also delivered programmes with The Royal Opera House, The V&A, and The British Museum.

Sarah is Talent Development Producer for Wildworks, the UK's leading landscape theatre company, and Programme Coordinator for Young & Talented Cornwall, The Lord Lieutenant's Fund.
