

Get to Know Your Governor

Name: Dan Lovell | Role: Governor | Department: TBC

Background:

Dan is a passionate educator with over a decade of experience teaching Latin, Greek, and Classical Civilisation. In 2024, he joined the governing body to contribute to the success of education both within the school and the broader community.

Key areas of business expertise, experience and qualifications:

Currently serving as the Head of the Ancient and Modern Languages Faculty at Truro High School, Dan brings a wealth of expertise in both academic and pastoral roles. His career has seen him oversee the progress and well-being of students aged 8 to 18, ensuring they thrive both inside and outside the classroom.

Having moved relatively recently to Cornwall, Dan is excited to immerse himself in the vibrant Penryn College community and looks forward to supporting its students, staff, and families.

Key areas of interest as a governor:

Dan holds an undergraduate degree in Classics and postgraduate qualifications in Education, which underpin his commitment to lifelong learning and excellence in teaching.

Dan says:

“As a governor, I aim to help create an environment where every student feels inspired to achieve their best, both academically and personally, while ensuring the school continues to grow as a cornerstone of the local community.”

In his spare time, you'll find Dan enjoying Cornwall's stunning coastline on long walks with the dogs, relaxing with a good book and a cup of tea, or cycling through the countryside.
